SACRIFICED MILLIONS TO WED THE MAN SHE LOVED

Wealthy Quaker Father of Annie E. Gibbons Has Disowned Her for Marrying George Armstrong Elliott, of Wilmington, Del.

While in Europe She Wrote Home Regularly, but the Stern Old Man, Deaf to Entreaty, Never Made Reply.

ne E. Gibbons, daughter of Million-Richard P. Gibbons, sacrificed the great fortune that would have been hers for the man she loved.

Her stern old Quaker father has disinherited her, his only child, and has vowed that he will never look upon her face again. She is the bride of George Armstrong Elliott and the Four Hundred are awaiting their home coming from Europe. They will receive a hearty welcome from everyhody except, the white-halred occupant of the oldfashioned red brick homestead at 1311 an, ten years ago, rebelled and declared five, his bride thirty, that she would put aside the garb of it was en June it it her sect. Elliott was smitten with the ded.

MRS. ELLIOTT ONEE GIBBONS

Reared under the sombre influence of a fine cross-country rider, an ardent the Friends' Society, her yearnings for sportsman and is President of the Jour-excitement suppressed, the young wom-nail Publishing Company. He is forty-It was on June if that they were wed-

Rabiner Killed His Brother-in-Law, Shot Father and Then Himself.

Joseph Habliner, who killed his brother nd himself on the plazza of the Holland His father, who lay in an adjoinplications developed he will recover. Although very weak, Rabiner has made a statement to the police;

I was dring of consumption anyhow, he gasped, "and my father left me to shift for myself on $6 a week. "It was not enough to secure for m and I told him so. I told him that he and all the other members of the family and that he should either increase my allowance or let me join them there. 'My futher paid no attention whatever my remonstrance. Last Friday mucht the revolver because I had fully no my mind to commit suicide other cent or as much as a pair of made me so angry that I had sulled the revolver and fired before Intention whatever of hurting my rother-in-law and I feel very sorry ance broker and real estate man, lives with his family at 317 East Seventyninth street. His wife and three chil-

Stein, who married Miss Rabiner, was that she would not aside the garb of her sect. Elliott was amitten with the fresh young Quaker malden's charms and became her gallant on all possible occasions.

But the old Quaker father looked unifavorably upon the suit of the dashing lawyer and forbade him the house Love, however, outwitted the stern parent and clandestine meetings were arransed.

The denouement came last June, when the demure little Quakeress capitulated and consented to a clandestine weeding. After the marriage the couple sought a reconciliation with the father of the bride buffer bride, but fruitlessly. Thereupon they departed for Europe.

Now comes the cruel announcement that Richard P. Gibbons disinherits his only child, and will never look upon her family and provided an answer. None ever came. Are reflected as an asswer. None ever came. The father has served as City Solicitor and its the sworn enemy of the Addicks.

It was on June it that they were wedded.

But the old Quaker father looked unit them. At 5 o'clock Efflort, accompanied upon to unite them. At 5 o'clock Efflort, accompanied upon to unite them. At 5 o'clock Efflort, accompanied upon to unite them. At 5 o'clock Efflort, accompanied upon the suit of the dashing lawyer and forback him them. At 6 o'clock Efflort, accompanied upon the particular power of the History. A few particular powers are seen than the father house friend them. I was both the them. At 5 o'clock Efflort, accompanied upon the Bishopstead, the platitude of the particular power and treat myself are the companied upon the suit of the dashing that it is all thin they were wealed.

The senior Rabiner, As a few short that I shot my father. As few shorts limited them. I was been the ded.

The senior Rabiner, As a few death of the shorts and throad upon the short that I shot my father. As a few shorts limited them. I was been the ded.

The senior Rabiner, As a few death and throad upon the short that I shot my father. As few shorts limited upon the short that the shot is the short as a few shorts limited upon the s Joseph Rabiner was twenty-seven years old at his last birthday and lived at 49 East Third street. He is a conover a dispute in regard to this allow-ance that the tragedy was enacted. Rabiner glanced at his victims and then turned the sisted on himself. He

JAMES BUTLER FINE GROCERIES.

STORES EVERYWHERE

package

91 RETAIL BRANCHES.

Our output is greater than that of any other wholesale and retail grocery concern in this country, so naturally a business of such magnitude secures every advantage in the matter of quality and price—you profit by this, as an ability to buy right and sell cheaply means better groceries for less money than it is possible to obtain elsewhere. Look these prices over; it will pay

Catsup, Liberty Brand, fine ripe 5c tomato flavor, 1/2 pint bottle.. 5c Lemons, fine large juicy fruit, Q per dozen..... OC Root Beer Extract, Peerless 50 Farina, made from finest selected Brand, per bottle..... wheat, per 1-lb. package..... 40 Vanilla Flavoring, Peerless Brand, QC Lemonade, Eiffel Tower, makes 10 pints..... 9c triple strength, 15c. size for Cocoa, W. H. Eaker's Best, per Gelatine, Peerless Brand, better Q Olive Oil, best imported, pint 25c Rolled Oats, Caledonian Brand, made from best white oats, per

Potatoes, finest Long Island, 10c Peas, Hubbard's Early June, sweet and tender, per can.... 9C

TEA, the very finest grades, 39c Mocha and Java, per lb.... 23c

The BUTLER STORES are on every important thoroughfare in New York (Boroughs of Manhattan, Brooklyn, Bronx and Richmond), Jersey City, Greenville, Bayonne, Hoboken, Union Hill, Elizabethport, Paterson, Long Island City, Astoria, Flushing, New Rochelle, White Plains, Mount Vernon, Yonkers and Tarrytown.

bottle

JAMES BUTLER

VEILED WOMAN WITH MYSTERY IN LIFE SILENT IN DEATH

ort Conn., for the $25,000 estate left by dollars he mysterious woman who died in the livelye years getting on account of Polyclinic Hospital, 214 East Thirtya Bridgeport, whence she came to this abich was seldom, it was with bitterhers. Her father's name she revered, and always wore a watch he had given city for treatment, may lift the veil to know more than that she was "Miss A LOVE ROMANCE.

THE RESIDENCE OF THE PROPERTY OF THE PARTY OF THE PROPERTY OF THE PARTY OF THE PART

Inc. Mrs. Hodgkins story, suggested to know more than that she was "Miss A LOVE ROMANCE.

Moorie E. Beth," the name she gave. "I think Miss Beth had loved a young when admitted to the hospital and which man and that her mother had opposed "She unce said that she had a brother past save what might be inferred from in Philadelphia and she used to speak vague hints. This habit of rethrence vented her from affixing her name to a worked beside Miss Beth in the corset vill that she was urged to sign. This factory, gave her a book to read. It was has sed to legal complications that will entitled 'Three Old Maids,' and when him Beth read it she was frequently oubtless result in the very disclosures seen crying. "Twas something that brought back

Beth, as she raised her handkerchief t

WOULD NOT SIGN WILL.

When she came to this city Sunday for treatment for cancer Miss Beth ap-the very outset," said Dr. Bosher, house physician at the hospital, to an Evening World reporter. "Her manner was at here was something still stranger about

he appearance at the hospital of a man patient to make a will before she died,

DIED WITH SEALED LIPS.

"In fact, at one time they even sen

her eyes and sobbed aloud.

cheeks sunken.

BLIGHTED IN LOVE.

where Miss Beth lived for ninetee years, gleaned that her mysterious on not finished her story, all those bearder was the daughter of a once heard it, with the exception of the wealthy Southern family; that she had lowed a young man, but that her maringmoved. boarder was the daughter of a once riage had been thwarted by her mother; that she had left her home penniless, worked for twelve years for a bare pit tance of $5 a week and finally, when her Boundered the Magistrate, hair was grizzled, had fallen heir to a secrecy. he would never go without putting o heavy vell.

MOTHER'S MEMORY BITTER.

"She began to learn to play the plano, but finally gave it up because she said it made her feel so lonely and blue. She was a great reader, love stories being her favorites.

"She carned only about is a week, but kept at her work for twelve years and never missed a day.

"One day about eight years ago she told me she was going away. When she the shock her head when the was going away. When she moment, she seemed fond of the young woman and called her "Hattle."

Mass lightly wasters were Mr. Seward, of Fairfield, Conn., and his daughter, burry, do. moment, she shook her head when the Greatest of All

Summer Clearing Family Sales Is Still in Progress

IN OUR BASEMENT.

Shoes for each member of the Family. All New, Fresh Goods. Taken from main floor to make room for incoming Fall stock. Come at once and get the best bargains ever offered.

800 pairs Misses' large size Russia Calf Spring Heel Shoes, $1.50 former price $3.50 and $4.00, sizes 21/2 to 6, per pair.... 500 pairs Misses' large size Russet Kid Spring Heel Shoes, $1.00 500 pairs Little Gents' Russia Calf Spring Heel Lace Shoes, $1.00

We shall also place upon our bargain table 1,000 pairs of Children's and Misses' Russet Shoes, former prices from $1.25 to $2.00, to be sold at 75c. and $1.00 per pair.

This sale is not intended for retail shoe dealers, but only and exclusively for our customers.

Store Closes at 1 P. M. Saturdays During August.

ALFRED J. CAMMEYER, 6th Ave., cor. 20th St. the past to me, that's all." roofled Miss

FOUND DEAD IN THE WOODS

Maher Was Driven Insane by In- No One Who Has Crossed It Bas juries Received July 4, When He Mysteriously Disappeared.

George Maher's friends found him wandering insane in the woods near Canarsie, where he has lived since he disappeared mysteriously on July 4, and all times that of a recluse-one who was he is to-day in the Flatbush Insane trying to die with her life shrouded in Asylum.

Maher was driven mad by injuries caused by a dynamite toredo exploding in his hands on July 4. It was given him by a friend. The explosion burned out his left eye and caused excruciating pain. Crazed, he left home and was not seen those who want help and those who until found by the rescue party yester- want work. They are widely sepaday. He was yardmaster at the East for her signature. And yet, at the last New York station of the Kings County "L" road and lived with his mother at

OVER THE BRIDGE.

There are two classes of peopletact with the other. But communication is necessary, and The World It is called The World Want Column and no one who has crossed it has Quick service through Sunday other side—within reason, of course.

World Wants. If you've got all sum—if you have anything to say to the mer, don't use World Wants. If in a burry, do.

If you have anything to say to the class who hire assistance or the class who sell assistance, try The World Want Bridge. failed to find what he wanted on the Katle Griffen Missed Her Chance When Burns Boys Were Caught.

Katle Griffen, of 114 Second street, Jersey City, was to have been a pirate queen when John and Jimmy Burns, her playmates, flew the Jolly Roger over their low and rakish craft.

John was old enough to hold a job where he had an opportunity to steal to fit out the expedition which was to bring him fame and fortune in trop-Ical seas.

terested the Jersey City police and they captured the pirates bold through a | he had acquainted Katle with the locasion of the pirates' tryst. For months past the boys have been planning a piratical expedition. They got the idea from drunken sailors' tales John Burns is seventeen years old. He worked in the Jersey City office of was so well thought of that he was riven the combination of the safe. ousands of dollars have been at his ercy over night, but he never took a cent until the craze for becoming a pirate took hold of him.

Brother James, three years John's anior, followed him implicitly. With the pirate crew the conspiracy was formed. The details were worked out from what the boys could glean of atical procedure as outlined in dime vel literature, to which the Burns boys were strongly addicted.

own savings, sent a boy to Savannah to look over a suitable craft.

BATHING SUITS STOLEN.

new Parkway baths ben and Coney Island to presale abstraction of bathatrons of the establish wrote back several letters, and yester- rot in town this marning, for being a Krieg returned to the saloon and belileose attitude that he beat an inglorious retreat. His name was Willfam Wilson. The fact that Polly swore the volubly in German is not to be overlooked. Polly lives at 526 East Eleventh street formed her this morning that Mr. Wilson had been held in $2,000 ball for trial, she scratched her head and said:

"Aw! Aw! Aw!" Her intonation was one of loty condescension. ered the burglar?"

"And that was your first experience with burglars?"

He Polly Hallowitz was the proudest par- promptly answered the parrot. with all plans completed. John woman bird she is not insensible to flat- what James set forth on their travels.

ut 10 o'clock Mr. Oscar Krieg, tery. It is scarcely to be wondered at asked.

The company of the Lion Brewery, that she was puffed up with pride, for Areadty Areadty yet! Pumppernizable of why John had not come to work.

set into Mr. Burns's saloon and the sort. Since Tuesday last she has now the state of the bor's praises sung night and day.

Then it was discovered that It is given to few birds to have such the bor's praises sung night and day.

The birds were gone.

"You were not me to ware of the bor's praises sung night and day.

"Du bist ain narr," said the parrot. The birds are exciting adventure with a burglar as "Foot foot better that the birds was not set the birds to have such that the birds are exciting adventure with a burglar as "Foot foot better that the birds to have such that the birds to have such the birds to have such the birds to have such that the birds to have such the birds to have such that the birds to have such the b orys were gone.

It is given to few birds to have as a reciting adventure with a burglar as room, his mother an exciting adventure with a burglar as room, for an exciting adventure with a burglar as room, for made plain the entire plot. Sills with the letters showed that the met the intruder with such a stern face was as a room. mistress, Mrs. Hallowitz, was in the front room at the first. bought an arsenal full of met the intruder with such a stern face was assented the parrot. was the first thing you said to o Coney to-day! Rats! Don-> and the best is none too good for her. When an Evening World reporter in- may Do you feel proud of your achieve-this is the first time you have "Were you afraid when you discovered the burglar?"

"Hoeller" answered the parrot. "Swetter Kase und grosser Maginnis—nis—is."
"And that was your first experience with burglars?"
"And that was your first experience with burglars?"
"And that was your first experience with burglars?"
"How does it feel to be a heroine."

Hard - Hearted Driver Would Not Withdraw Charge.

Mrs. Emma Hodgkins, of 1831 Seventh avenue, stole two loaves of bread from aker's wagon at One Hundred and Tweifth street and Seventh avenue this

The driver, Walter M. Xerk, of 2165 Eighth avenue, who is employed by Sushman, called a policeman, who arested the woman. Even then she clung My husband and children are stary ing," she cried, All the way to the station-house the woman clang to the bread. She told a enliness, but lost her position. usband, who formerly earned good th at home too small to work."

was the repry. "She took elim Hundered the Maghatrate, at this remark has jumped to his "If think it can I'll see your emer about it. I'll person this unforce wobset until to-morros and it re you it will take a very great int of evidence for me to hold her." She was strikingly handsome would reto court to-morros and it reto to the wood reto court to-morros morning. She was tall and queenly in the bearing, her hair was black and her stigated, and if she is found to be thy will endeavor to aid her and her ly.

MAN DIED IN A FIT

Victim of Epilepsy Found Dend in the Bathroom of thirty-five her favorites.